

SUBMIT YOUR STUDENT FILMS TODAY

Deadline January 8, 2023

NJSBA-SPONSORED STUDENT FILM CATEGORY IN THE GARDEN STATE FILM FESTIVAL (GSFF)

NJSBA'S New Jersey Hometown Documentary Short (must be 5 minutes or under in length)

The Garden State Film Festival, Artists Alike Studios, the New Jersey Motion Picture & Television Commission and The New Jersey School Boards Association created the Hometown Documentary Series and is looking for New Jersey School Documentary Films that are works written, directed, and shot by students.

The films must focus on some aspect of the student's hometown, that profiles an interesting person, place, time period or subject related to THE ARTS. Winners will be showcased in the prestigious 21st Annual Garden State Film Festival and receive all the benefits of selected filmmakers!

Questions or for information: rkampf@njsba.org

Enter at: <https://filmfreeway.com/GardenStateFilmFestival>.

You need to use Deadline Waiver code: NJHometown

Deadline for this category ONLY is: January 8th 2023

Teachers please note GSFF needs direct contact information for the students.*

Please be sure to list the NAME OF YOUR SCHOOL, it's location, and grade level.

"For the past twenty-two years, GSFF has conducted a robust educational program to inspire, educate and introduce young people to the 21st century vocations the film industry offers," executive director, Lauren Concar Sheehy.

THE GARDEN STATE FILM FESTIVAL is New Jersey's Premier Independent Film Festival® with a worldwide reach of over 41,000,000. Now in its 21st year, the GSFF, a 501-c-3non-profit organization, is a global destination festival that stimulates economic growth in New Jersey through the arts. It also promotes student creativity, exposes them to 21st Century vocations, makes the arts accessible to underserved populations and preserves heritage arts.

For more information visit

info@gsff.org • facebook.com/GardenStateFilmFestival

twitter.com/GardenStateFilm • instagram.com/gardenstatefilmfestival

